

LETTER TO SPIRITUAL MANNA RECIPIENTS

by Fritz Springmeier

December 5, 2001

Please read this if you want to continue to receive manna articles. It's been a joy for me to send these mannas out to the remnant and those of good will. You have been sent 40 mannas, and attached to this letter is an index that indexes these 40 both topically and chronologically.

Lord willing, I will continue to send more exciting manna articles. However, for a while I need to spend some time praying. The month of December is an appropriate month to meditate upon Christ. You can also reflect upon these 40 mannas, and try out some of their suggestions. You have been eating (hopefully feasting), and now I give you a period of digestion. In general, your responses have been wonderful. An exception to this is that several of my dear readers have recently given me replies that show me they just don't get a major piece. They are not understanding that this whole September Eleventh thing along with the worldwide war on terrorism is a staged act. It's an expensive play and the world's the stage. If you see Germany refuse to cooperate with Bush's demand for German troops to fight terrorism in some far-off land, don't draw the false conclusion it means the German leaders aren't in league with our dirty politicians. These German politicians are Illuminati, and are simply reading their script. The Arabs only have power because our dirty Illuminati politicians have suppressed the technology that would make their oil and gas worthless. They even destroyed lots of oil in the gulf war to help jack up the prices. The Muslim fundamentalists are a capable international military group only because of our enormous assistance, including our staged antagonisms to anger the Muslims. Don't think that the major politicians of this country are on our side. If they say they are going to defend our freedoms, it is only because they are saying their lines in this play, not because they are actually going to protect them. Wake up people! There might be a slim chance a few politicians are legitimate, but from what I know I can't see how. Only God and the common person not in the play can still act independently.

The New York Times of September 22 states that the only one Israeli died in the World Trade Center September Eleventh tragedy. He was visiting the World Trade Center on business. Considering 199 are listed dead from Columbia and 428 from the Philippines, and some Jews have reported that they were tipped off prior to the attack, it looks to me like this was a Mossad operation on behalf of the Illuminati perhaps using Muslims. The Mossad, by the way, takes orders daily from M I-6, who in turn are hand-in-glove with the Illuminati. Both M's have Muslim assets.

The bigger picture is why you will find Jesuit educated Shimon Peres (the Israeli leader) having stock (2-point-4-6 percent) in the Palestinian Liberation Organization's public phone company Paltel along with the Bin Ladens (40 percent) and Arafat (40 percent). This is why the Bush family and the Bin Ladens are connected in business together, for instance, the Carlyle Group. (Well, it's reported the Bin Ladens recently pulled out of the Carlyle Group.) It's no different than when Bush's grandfather aided Hitler financially, and Brown Brothers Harriman made big bucks.

Tens of thousands of insiders know exactly that this is a staged play, but they are not going to tell you because they fear the power of the World Order, I don't. (How many insiders spilled the beans in the Kennedy assassination?) Don't let the play mesmerize you.

I am having a seriously difficult time getting the bigger picture across to my readers. This war is not about oil, nor is it about making you safe. It is about setting up the final visible One World Dictatorship. The actors are often, well, actors. It always amazed me when I'd watch people watching a T V show and they would really think it was real. This September Eleventh guerilla-war inoculation and war on terrorism is a well-written script to bring in tyranny, and I am amazed it is even convincing many of my readers. Well, maybe I shouldn't be so amazed, because Hollywood which studies the emotional impact of their movie scenes was advising the American government after the September Eleventh attack; which is why the U.S. government got the media to show film of Bin Laden taunting America. Hollywood had advised them to do it. Yes, the scriptwriters wrote the script well, although King George's words after the September Eleventh event sounded like they were taken directly from the movie "The Siege".

Here's my contribution to their script, it looks like it was also directly taken from something else:

AN UPDATED New World Order translation of the Twenty-third Psalm.

“King George is my shepherd, I shall not want, He leadeth me beside still factories, He restoreth my faith in airport security He guideth me into the path of unwinnable long wars For the elite’s sake. I fear my government for the Bill of Rights is no longer with me, Thou anointest my activities with surveillance and censorship So my cup runneth over with persecution Surely poverty and disaster shall follow all the days of America, And we shall live in terror forever.”

I request something from you. Please drop me a little email note that you would like some more manna articles when I start sending them again. Yes, I know some of you have been lavish in your praise and support, and I feel somewhat sheepish to even suggest that you respond, but I decided the best way was for me not to assume anything, and have everyone respond. I am not sure when I will begin (hopefully, in the near future), but dropping me a little line will get you subscribed for the next round. Some people are receiving hard copies of the manna articles. If you know of someone who is not on the Internet, a devout shut-in or any person of God, and you know they would enjoy these manna articles let me know their address, and I will send them the first 40 issues. Consider yourself part of a select group.

I have at least 200 people who have begged me for Be Wise As Serpents books. I just wish they had gotten them 10 years ago when they were available. I am simply one person who lives out in the beautiful countryside of Oregon. Some people think I am an organization. Wrong. Please don’t assume that ten years from now I will be well stocked with these manna articles. I think you catch my drift, now is the time to get these articles. I am willing to send them to anyone who wants this kind of material.

Christ imparted his life to an inner circle of 12 and a larger group of 40. I am not looking to share with large crowds.

For over a decade I have been seeking that small group of people who have ears to hear, and then the gumption to do something after they do hear. I want that hardcore remnant, the ones that Gideon could use. And now I am finding out who wants to go on with these manna articles, and who doesn't. I'm not asking much, just a simple confirmation that you want to go on receiving them.

Since I am unable to mask my recipients, these mannas go out in small address clusters. This means the emails don't all go out with one click of the mouse. It's a little extra work, but I am trying to preserve your privacy. When the Feds raided my place, they got thousands of addresses. What they think they can decipher from all those addresses is beyond me, but if that is how they are going to black list people, their method is going to black list a large percentage of this country. It appears that instead of protecting Americans, they are busy with this kind of silliness. Are they afraid of Christians? I hope so. I hope they see a big conspiracy behind every little old grandmother's address.

Our problem is not the Muslims. Our problem is not the Roman Catholics. Our problem is not the Jews. Our problem is not the Christians. Our problem is the people who use these religions as fronts! Don't be so mesmerized by the play that you join it thinking it's real. This is why Christ says bring every thought into captivity into his obedience. (Second Corinthians 10:5) If you don't, Satan will do just the opposite, take your thoughts captive to him.

If anything is important and timely, I will try to pass it on. There are some others who are supplying good information. And Lord willing, I will continue to let them do that while I focus on feeding and caring for God's flock spiritually. Today's Spirits of Deception are powerful, but I have this hope that with God's Spirit I can prevent the elect from being deceived. Let me hear from you. Yours in Christ and liberty, Fritz Springmeier.
