

Robert Schuller

Involved with Freemasonry and the Illuminati

by Fritz Springmeier

There are a number of important “powerful” (in their own eyes) [so-called] Christian clergymen who are Freemasons. These men collaborate with each other. Once one of them is established in a famous ministry they use their established ministry to birth (to launch) someone else into prominence. This is an overview on Robert Schuller and his ties to this group.

I originally concluded that Robert Schuller was a Freemason based on:

- a. Testimony and claims of individuals
- b. How he worked within this pack of Masonic clergymen
- c. The fact that certain photographs showed him doing Masonic handshakes with other Masons. I used to have one. I suggest that a person examine past photos of him with the “right” people, and you may well also find a Masonic handshake. I concluded he is a Freemason.

This was a conclusion I came to in 1991. It seems that years later, I saw a Masonic reference to his membership, but since I had already concluded he was a Mason, I didn't take the effort to keep track of this reference. I also felt that his own anti-Biblical teachings (which are openly taught) should scare Christians away from the man.

Although it is significant that he is a Freemason, what is more significant is that he promotes Masonic doctrine. (I said the same about Charles T. Russell, but the response back to me by individuals was that I was wrong, they contended that the membership is more important than what the man does. How people can think this way boggles my mind. I am much more concerned with what a man does, rather than the labels he puts on himself.)

In material that is authorized by Robert Schuller the First's ministry, it is stated that Norman Vincent Peale was his mentor and "close friend". For documentation on this see Nason, Michael and Donna Nason. Robert Schuller: The Inside Story (Waco: Word Books, 1983, page 61) Schuller often praised Norman Vincent Peale, for instance, in his Hour of Prophecy Show of April 2, 1989, which had a clip of Peale. Less than a month after Peale died, Schuller did a show on January 16, 1994, where Schuller talked with tears about how Peale had been his mentor and his inspiration. Peale was more than that. Peale helped his ministry over the years.

Who was Norman Vincent Peale? I have the Scottish Rite Magazine that shows Peale's picture in the Scottish Rite's House of the Temple in the Scottish Rite's Hall of Honor. Norman Vincent Peale's Thirty-Third degree membership was not kept secret. He was also a Shriner (Imperial Grand Chaplain of the Shrine). Billy Graham's Christianity Today gave Peale positive publicity. In Billy Graham's New York Crusade, the larger number of people who came forward (373) were sent to Peale's Marble Collegiate Church. The second largest group of new converts (135) were sent to the Rockefeller's Riverside Church, whose pastor was an infidel. Peale's gospel was the gospel of Positive Thinking, and he taught visualization and other techniques that are important for people to function under the Illuminati's trauma-based total mind-control programming. In other words, he was enhancing their mind-control of their victims in the general population. Peale promoted a number of different religions and methods from other religions such as Transcendental Meditation and witchcraft, and he consistently criticized traditional Christianity. Peale was very close to the Unity School in Kansas City, and so was Schuller. I knew a man who had taught at the Unity School before he became a Christian. He told me that he had personally witnessed Robert Schuller perform a Luciferian initiation ceremony at the Unity School, and that Robert Schuller knew what he was doing. I also happened to bump into two men in Kansas one day (this was in the 1980's, before I was exposing all this stuff) and as we talked they wanted to talk about something very frightening that they had experienced. They had bumped into Satanic Rituals going on at night near the Unity School, and were chased by these Satanists and barely escaped. Norman Vincent Peale was also part of the Pilgrim Society (which is an Illuminati front) reserved for higher up Illuminati members. Peale and Billy Graham are close friends.

Armand Hammer (whose father Julius named his first name after the Communists arm and hammer symbol) was Jewish and the top man for the Communists under Lenin and Stalin in the United States. I spent several days as the guest of a woman who had been programmed with Illuminati mind-control to be a sexual slave for Armand Hammer. This convinced me that it was no accident that Armand Hammer was great friends of the European Rothschilds, and many other prominent Illuminati members. It clearly showed me what seemed obvious anyway, the man was Illuminati. It helps explain why J. Edgar Hoover, Richard Nixon, and many other supposedly anti-Communists were friendly with Hammer. William Casey (once head of the C I A) while he was head of the Export-Import Bank was in favor of Hammer activities in Russia, and in 1974 loaned Russia 216 million dollars on unprofitable ventures that Hammer wanted to carry out in Russia. In 1966, when the Arabs found out that Hammer was Jewish, he nominally joined a Unitarian church so that he could claim he wasn't Jewish. This man, Armand Hammer, was the man who got Robert Schuller into Russia and regularly onto Russian T.V.

Robert Schuller taught a Masonic gospel. Schuller told Muslims that if he, Schuller, came back in 100 years and found his descendants to be Muslims it wouldn't bother him. The Record (Spring, 1997) reports that 80 homosexual pastors and lay leaders from the Metropolitan Community Churches participated in Schuller's 1997 Robert Schuller Institute for Successful Church Leadership.

Masons within the Masonic lodges know that Kenneth Copeland, Billy Graham and others are Freemasons. They have been reported saying so to other Masons, and to Christians. For instance, some friends of mine went to a Masonic open house where they were trying to impress new comers (probably hoping for new recruits) and one of the Masons boasted that Billy Graham was a Freemason. My friends were very impressed because it confirmed what they had read in my material.

Prominent Masonic Clergymen who hide their Masonic membership would include: Kenneth Copeland, Billy Graham, and Oral Roberts.

Kenneth Copeland has shaken hands with Masons with Masonic handshakes, and placed the Masonic Square and Compass on his tapes and books. His daughter has her picture on the cover of "Shout" (Copeland's magazine for kids) wearing an upside-down star, which represents both Baphomet (Lucifer and Satan) and the Masonic Women's Eastern Star. Kenneth Copeland started his ministry under Oral Roberts. Oral Roberts was, in turn, started out by Billy Graham. (Oral Roberts admits that Graham got him started in one of his books, Miracle of Seed Faith, page 9). I have spent time with victims of Illuminati mind-control who were Satanic Ritual Abuse victims in ceremonies led by Oral Roberts. I would say about half a dozen people who could give personal details of how Oral Roberts is a Satanist have talked (confided) with me. They also would talk about his Masonic membership. There is a large number of hurting people who are Satanic Ritual Abuse and Dissociative Identity Disorder. These people live in different parts of the country, and have never seen each other, but have personal accounts that collaborate each other.

How these three Masonic Clergymen expose themselves is in what they have said that is heretical, what they have said that is obviously mind-control triggers for Illuminati mind-control, and how the infidels and heretics that they embrace are best of friends with them. The financing for these men shows that men like Armand Hammer, William Randolph Hearst, the Rockefellers and numerous others of similar ilk are willing to support them with large donations and help.

Part of the proof of who Robert Schuller, Billy Graham, and Oral Roberts is seen when one assembles the pieces of the puzzle as to what they are doing. An accumulation of evidence then piles up that is so vast, that it is clear that these men are dirty. Robert Schuller is on the public record as denying all the beliefs of Christianity. He is only a "Christian" if one redefines Christian to be just the opposite of what it used to mean. For anyone who wants to comprehend that Schuller does not teach Christian doctrine, I suggest they simply compare his teachings to the Bible. Billy Graham, Oral Roberts, and Kenneth Copeland are usually more subtle (but not always). Billy Graham openly said we should embrace the New World Order. Copeland openly said that the Romans had anal sex with Christ. Roberts openly said his fantastic vision, that brought him so much ridicule. The man who "saved" Roberts was not a Christian. The man who Graham says initially told him to become a Christian minister was the head of the Jesuits, Malachi Martin, who I know to be an Illuminati mind-control programmer. There are plenty of off-color things about these men, if one has the clear thinking to see the blatant off-color facts.

But most people think that the world's establishment news will tell them the truth. When Billy Graham is rated the most popular respected man in America for several years, the herd instinct of the sheeple is to idolize the man.

Then when this idol of a man tells us Oral Roberts is a great man of God, the sheeple swallow that one, too. It all works together, and all these men work together.

I do not think most Christians can think clearly and with critical thinking.

I say this because Billy Graham has openly supported Norman Vincent Peale and Robert Schuller. Both of these men preach a gospel of positive thinking, and openly defy the doctrines of the Bible. All three of these men preach ecumenicalism and participate in Ecumenical meetings and ecumenical groups.

They are also in favor of a One-World-Religion, which does not teach Christ as the only way of salvation. Because I am centering on Robert Schuller, this article will not go into the fullness of what these other men have done. In light of what I know these men are doing, their reported Thirty-Third degree memberships in the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry seem trivial. Peale, Schuller, and Roberts are Illuminati. Graham is used by the Illuminati, and has participated in Luciferian rituals. It is hard to conceive that they would use him so much, (and he knows they use him by the way), if he were not also a member. Since there is a small possibility that he is primarily just blackmailed, without being a member, I might entertain a small doubt about whether he is actually a member.

Copeland participates in the Illuminati's mind-control over people, and is also I suspect one of their members. These men don't want to taint their Madison Avenue images by revealing their Scottish Rite memberships, but they have much darker secrets than their Scottish Rite memberships.
